

Concentration of Media Ownership has already suppressed reporting on information critical to the functioning of our representational government. Past relaxations in ownership levels should be reversed.